KIRBY CORPORATION
-----PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors of Kirby Corporation (the "Company") to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at The Sheraton Luxury Collection Hotel (formerly the Ritz Carlton Hotel), 1919 Briar Oaks Lane, Houston, Texas, on April 21, 1998, at 10:00 a.m. (CDT), and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The Notice of Annual Meeting, this Proxy Statement, the proxy card and the Company's Annual Report, which includes the Annual Report on Form 10-K for 1997, are being mailed to stockholders on or about March 4, 1998.

Stockholders of record at the close of business on March 2, 1998 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. As of March 2, 1998, the Company had 24,435,436 outstanding shares of common stock. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Assuming a quorum, the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast is required for the election of directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for determining a quorum, but not counted as voting for determining whether a director or proposal has received the necessary number of votes for election of the director or approval of the proposal.

Your shares will be voted as specified on the enclosed proxy card. If you do not specify how you want your shares voted, the shares will be voted for the election of all the directors named in this Proxy Statement and at the discretion of the proxies on other matters.

You are encouraged to complete, sign and return the proxy card even if you expect to attend the meeting. You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the meeting by executing a later-dated proxy. If you attend the meeting and wish to vote, your ballot at the meeting will cancel any proxy that you have previously given.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. The Company has retained Corporate Investor Communications, Inc. ("CIC") to solicit proxies at an estimated cost of $5,000, plus out-of-pocket expenses. Employees of the Company may also solicit proxies, for which the expense would be nominal and borne by the Company. Solicitation may be by mail, facsimile, electronic mail, telephone or personal interview.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS (ITEM 1)

The Bylaws of the Company provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of not fewer than three nor more than fifteen members and that the number of directors, within such limits, shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors at any meeting or by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. By resolution of the Board of Directors at its January 20, 1998 meeting, the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors was set at nine.

It is intended that the shares represented by the enclosed proxy card will be voted, unless such authority is withheld, for the election of the nine director nominees named in the following section. Each nominee is presently a director of the Company. The directors will be elected to serve for the ensuing year and until their successors have been elected. In the event that any director nominee should become unavailable to serve as a director, which is not anticipated, the persons named as proxies in the enclosed proxy card intend to vote for a nominee who shall be designated by the present Board of Directors to fill such vacancy.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS CONCERNING THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In his capacity as an advisory director, Mr. Gilchrist is invited to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and to participate in Board discussions. However, Mr. Gilchrist is not entitled to vote on matters submitted for Board approval and is not involved in the administration or management of the Company. Mr. Gilchrist also serves as an advisory member of the Compensation Committee of the Board. See "Committee Meetings." Mr. Gilchrist is invited to attend these Committee meetings and participate in Committee discussions, but is not entitled to vote on matters submitted for Committee approval. The selection of advisory directors and advisory committee members is made by the Board of Directors, and stockholders do not have a vote on these selections. During 1997, the Company retained Jenkens & Gilchrist, a Professional Corporation, to perform various legal services and expects to retain such firm to perform legal services in 1998.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS

During 1997, the Board of Directors held eight meetings and each director attended more than 75% of all meetings of the Board and of each Board Committee on which such director served. Mr. Peterkin and Mr. Pyne were employed by the Company for all of 1997 and, therefore, received no remuneration for serving on the Board of Directors or its Committees.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

The Board of Directors has established five standing Committees, including the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Committee on Directors and Board Governance, each of which is briefly described below. Each of those three Committees meets regularly during the year and promptly following each meeting advises the full Board of Directors of its actions and recommendations. The other Committees of the Board include the Executive Committee and the Strategic Planning Committee.

Audit Committee -- The Audit Committee, which consists of Mr. Clements (Chairman), Mr. Day, Mr. Gower and Mr. Waggoner, all nonemployee directors, held three meetings during 1997. The Committee has the responsibility for recommending the engagement or discharge of the Company's independent public accountants. The Committee reviews with the independent public accountants the scope of the audit, the fees for the audit and related matters (including nonaudit services), receives copies of the annual comments from the independent public accountants on accounting procedures and systems of control, and reviews with them any questions, comments or suggestions they may have relating to the internal controls, accounting practices or procedures of the Company. Additional responsibilities include reviewing the program of the Company's internal auditor, including procedures for assuring implementation of accepted recommendations made by the independent public accountants, and receiving summaries of all audit reports issued by the internal auditor.

Compensation Committee -- The Compensation Committee, which consists of Mr. Lamont (Chairman), Mr. Clements, Mr. Stone, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Waggoner, all nonemployee directors, and Mr. Gilchrist, as an advisory member, held six meetings during 1997. The Committee reviews all compensation of the Company's officers and key employees and makes compensation recommendations to the Board. In addition, the Committee administers the Company's stock option plans and grants stock options under such plans. The Committee's report on executive compensation is set forth beginning on page 8.

Committee on Directors and Board Governance -- In April 1997, the Board established a Committee on Directors and Board Governance. The Committee, which consists of Mr. Stone (Chairman), Mr. Lamont, Mr. Peterkin, Mr. Pyne and Mr. Taylor, held two meetings during 1997. The Committee maintains oversight of Board operations and effectiveness, evaluates the performance of the Board and its individual members, including the Chairman and the Company's President, reviews the size and composition of the Board and reviews the qualifications of candidates for Board membership. The Committee will consider candidates suggested by stockholders. Suggestions for candidates, accompanied by biographical information for evaluation, may be sent to the Secretary of the Company at its principal office address.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

During 1997, each non-employee director and advisory director received an annual retainer of $10,000, received $1,000 for each Board meeting attended and $750 for each Committee meeting attended ($500 if a Committee meets on the same day and same place as a meeting of the Board). The Chairman of each Committee received an additional annual retainer of $2,500. Directors and advisory directors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred for attending the meetings. There are no family relationships among any directors of the Company.

The Company has two director stock option plans, the 1989 Director Stock Option Plan (the "1989 Director Plan") and the 1994 Nonemployee Director Stock Option Plan (the "1994 Director Plan").

The 1989 Director Plan provides for the one-time granting to non-employee directors of stock options to purchase the Company's common stock. In 1994, the 1989 Director Plan was amended, with the automatic grant to future directors reduced from 10,000 shares to 5,000 shares of common stock. Currently, Mr. Clements, Mr. Lamont, Mr. Stone and Mr. Waggoner each hold options under the 1989 Director Plan for 10,000 shares of common stock. Mr. Day, Mr. Gower and Mr. Taylor each hold options under the 1989 Director Plan for 5,000 shares of common stock.

The 1994 Director Plan provides for the automatic granting to nonemployee directors or advisory directors of stock options to purchase the Company's common stock. In January 1994, each nonemployee director or advisory director received an option to purchase 1,500 shares of common stock. On the first business day immediately following the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, beginning with the 1994 meeting, each nonemployee director or advisory director, received, or will receive, an option to purchase 1,500 shares of the Company's common stock at the fair market value of such stock on such date. Currently, under the 1994 Director Plan, Mr. Clements, Mr. Lamont, Mr. Stone, Mr. Waggoner and Mr. Gilchrist each hold options for 7,500 shares of common stock. Mr. Day and Mr. Taylor each hold options for 3,000 shares of common stock.

The Company also has a 1993 Nonqualified Stock Option for Robert G. Stone, Jr. (the "Stone Option"). The Stone Option provided for the grant to Mr. Stone, in July 1993, of a stock option to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The purpose of the Stone Option is to provide an incentive to retain Mr. Stone as Chairman Emeritus of the Board or as a member of the Board.

TRANSACTIONS WITH DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

During 1997, the Company provided marine transportation services to Navios Corporation. Mr. Day is President and Chief Executive Officer of Navios Corporation. Such services were provided in the ordinary course of business of the Company and Navios Corporation and were entered into on an arm's-length basis. In 1997, the dollar value of such transactions was approximately $237,813. The Company anticipates that similar services will be rendered in 1998.

During 1997, the Company provided marine transportation services to Sterling Chemicals, Inc. Mr. Waggoner is a director and the former President of Sterling Chemicals, Inc. Such services were provided in the ordinary course of business of the Company and Sterling Chemicals, Inc. and were entered into on an arm's-length basis. In 1997, the dollar value of such transactions was approximately $376,494. The Company anticipates that similar services will be rendered in 1998.

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF COMMON STOCK

The following table sets forth information as of March 2, 1998 regarding beneficial ownership of common stock by each director, each named executive officer listed in the Summary Compensation Table, and by the directors and executive officers of the Company as a group. Under rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), "beneficial ownership" is deemed to include shares for which the individual, directly or indirectly, has or shares voting or investment power, whether or not they are held for the individual's benefit.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Board of Directors of the Company has a standing Compensation Committee whose functions are to (1) make recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding compensation policies, including salary, bonuses and other compensation, (2) administer all of the Company's stock option plans, and (3) grant stock options under the Company's stock option plans, except those plans as to which grants of options are automatic and those as to which no additional options may be granted. The Compensation Committee held six meetings in 1997. In 1997, the Board of Directors did not modify or reject in any material way any action or recommendation of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee is composed of five members and one advisory member, none of whom are employees of the Company and all of whom are "Disinterested Persons" or "Outside Directors" as defined in the various Company stock option plans.

Compensation of executive officers is based primarily on three elements: (1) base salary, (2) annual incentives, such as bonuses, and (3) long-term incentives, primarily stock options. The basic goal is to pay compensation comparable to similar corporations, giving due regard to relative financial performance, and to tie annual incentives and long-term incentives to corporate performance and a return to the Company's stockholders.

With regard to base salary, the objective is to set compensation at somewhat below the competitive median for similar positions in similar companies, and the Compensation Committee believes that this has generally been achieved.

With regard to the annual cash incentives for an executive officer, exclusive of base salary, the Compensation Committee attempts to set bonuses at a level such that, with a positive performance by the executive officer, and a certain level of profitability by the Company, the total compensation for such executive officer, being base salary plus annual cash incentives, should be above the median total cash compensation of similar corporations and positions. The Compensation Committee believes that total annual cash compensation above the median for similar corporations and positions is appropriate since a significant portion of each executive officer's total annual cash compensation is at risk due to both individual as well as company performance factors.

The executive officers of the Company's marine transportation group are considered for annual incentive bonuses based on a Return on Invested Capital formula that calculates a bonus pool and then distributes such bonus pool to executive officers based on company and individual performance.

Annual incentive bonuses for corporate executive officers who do not work for any of the Company's operating groups are recommended by the Compensation Committee and are determined by the nonmanagement members of the Board of Directors. Major factors in determining these bonuses are the perceived individual contributions and the correlation of such contributions to the overall corporate performance, the level of bonuses paid to executive officers in the marine transportation groups and the strategic and financial performance of the Company.

Stock options granted to executive officers and other Company employees have been granted at a price equal to the fair market value of Common Stock on the date of grant and, except for the Premium Stock Options granted on November 5, 1996 (the "Premium Stock Options"), generally vest in equal increments over a period of four years and, unless earlier terminated, are for a period of ten years. The Premium Stock Options are for a period of ten years. Fifty percent of the Premium Stock Options may be exercised if the price of the Company's Common Stock exceeds $28.73 per share for twenty consecutive business days prior to the fourth anniversary of the date of grant. All of the Premium Stock Options may be exercised if the price of the Company's Common Stock exceeds $30.88 per share for twenty consecutive business days prior to the fourth anniversary of the date of the grant. All of the Premium Stock Options may be exercised after the ninth anniversary of the date of the grant.

The Compensation Committee's objective for long-term incentive compensation for executive officers is the median for long-term incentive compensation of similar corporations and positions, giving effect to the Company's long-term performance relative to its peers.

In addition to retirement, health care and similar benefits, the primary long-term incentives for executive officers are options under the Company's stock option plans. Generally, in January or December of each year, stock option awards have been considered by the Compensation Committee, which has made recommendations to the Board of Directors; however, beginning February 1, 1994, such stock option awards are made by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee believes that the Company's long-term executive officer compensation, as evidenced by the options granted to date, does not exceed the value of stock options granted by similar companies to their executive officers holding similar positions.

The Compensation Committee encounters certain difficulties in establishing a peer group of companies for compensation comparison purposes because there are few publicly traded marine transportation companies of similar size and none with a similar service mix. Some other marine transportation companies are limited partnerships or subsidiaries of larger public corporations, again making comparisons difficult. The Compensation Committee also compares the Company's executive compensation to the executive compensation of similar-sized publicly held industrial companies.

Based on information available to it, the Compensation Committee believes that the Company's executive compensation is consistent with the criteria set forth above. The Compensation Committee recognizes that certain elements of executive compensation are determined on a subjective basis; however, the Compensation Committee believes that, since it is satisfied that total executive compensation is not excessive, these procedures are better for both the Company and its executives than would be a rigid formula-driven system. The Compensation Committee recognizes that external factors, such as flood waters, low water levels and other weather-related conditions, as well as the general business climate, and the demand for the movement of refined products and industrial chemicals, impact the Company's earnings, and the Compensation Committee looks to longer-term results rather than endeavoring to equate compensation to some annual percentage of earnings or increased earnings.

On October 18, 1994, on the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors adopted an unfunded, non-qualified Deferred Compensation Plan for Key Employees effective January 1, 1992, which Plan was designed primarily to provide additional benefits to eligible employees to restore benefits to which they would be entitled under the Company's Qualified Retirement Program were it not for certain limits imposed by the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan is designed to restore benefits for employees being compensated in excess of $150,000 per annum.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, enacted in 1993, generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation over $1 million paid to any of the Chief Executive Officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers. Certain performance-based compensation, however, is specifically exempt from the deduction limit. The Compensation Committee did take the steps necessary to qualify the Premium Stock Options awarded to executive officers under the Company's 1996 Employee Stock Option Plan for deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Compensation Committee considers the net cost to the Company in making all compensation decisions.

On the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the 1997 base salary compensation for J. H. Pyne, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, was established at $325,000 by the Company's Board of Directors effective January 21, 1997. The $140,103 bonus paid to Mr. Pyne in 1997, which was earned in 1996, was determined by the Company's Board of Directors on April 15, 1997, on the recommendation of the Compensation Committee.

The Chief Executive Officer's base pay and bonus were generally based on the same factors and criteria outlined above, being compensation paid to chief executives of corporations of similar size, individual as well as corporate performance and a general correlation with compensation of other executive officers of the Company.

Following the adoption of the Premium Stock Option Program and the granting of Premium Stock Options thereunder in 1996, the Compensation Committee did not grant any stock options to the Company's principal executive officers in 1997. The Compensation Committee generally has granted stock options based on its belief that stock options are a key element in the Company's executive compensation policy. The Compensation Committee grants stock options for executive officers based on its evaluation of individual performance and the Company's overall performance. The Compensation Committee recognizes that there is a significant subjective element in this procedure, but believes that such procedure is better suited to the Company than would be a formula-driven policy. Total options outstanding at the end of 1997 were for 1,016,350 shares, excluding the Premium Stock Options, constituting 4.2% of the then outstanding common stock of the Company, and 901,000 shares in the Premium Stock Option Program, constituting 3.7% of the then outstanding common stock of the Company, assuming all such options were fully exercised. The Compensation Committee believes that options in this amount are justified and are within the range of similar corporations that consider stock options an important part of their executive compensation package and that the options held by the Chief Executive Officer are an appropriate portion of the total options. The Compensation Committee believes that the Premium Stock Option Program places a greater proportion of the compensation of senior executives at risk under an incentive program which is clearly aligned with the creation of stockholder value.
